Unhappy Women!

No woman can be happy when her health is undermined. No woman can have good health while she suffers from female weakness, inflammation, ulceration or any disease of the delicate womanly organs. Nervous, sleepless, fretful, suffering in body and mind, she does not live but only exists.

More than a half a million such women have found a perfect and permanent cure for their diseased condition in the use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Women cured by this remedy say it is a "wonderful medicine," so perfectly does it restore them to health and comfort.

There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription," neither does it contain opium, cocaine nor other habit-forming drug in the smallest degree. Its ingredients are purely vegetable, and it will agree with the most delicate constitution.

Don't be hypnotized, or over persuaded, into accepting a substitute. This medicine has a record that's worth far more than any difference in price.

Sick and ailing women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, either personally or by letter, absolutely without charge or fee, thus avoiding the unpleasant questionings, offensive examinations and obnoxious local treatments considered necessary by many local practitioners. All correspondence treated as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Write without fear and without fee to Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets

These tiny, sugar-coated anti-bilious granules regulate Stomach, Liver and Bowels, cure Constipation and Bad Stomach, attended by foul breath. One or two for laxative, three or four for cathartic.

This great family Doctor Book FREE on receipt of 21 one-cent postage stamps to cover cost of mailing; or, in fine cloth binding 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

CLEANLY WOMAN.

Erroneously Thinks by Scouring Her Scalp That She Cures Dandruff.

Cleanly woman has an erroneous idea that by scouring the scalp, which removes the dandruff scales, she is curing the dandruff. She may wash her scalp every day, and yet have dandruff her life long, accompanied by falling hair, too. The only way in the world to cure dandruff is to kill the dandruff germ, and there is no hair preparation that will do that but Newbro's Herpicide. Herpicide by killing the dandruff germ, leaves the hair free to grow as healthy Nature intended. Destroy the cause you remove the effect. Kill the dandruff germ with Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Cannibals

and savages may delight in seeing SUFFERING, but the highest thought of civilization is to relieve all pain. This can quickly be done with HAMLINS WIZARD OIL.

For internal and external curative action, it has no equal in the entire medical world. It relieves the inflammation which is irritating your nerves, regulates the circulation of the small blood vessels, and, by scientific means, gently but certainly restores your body to health.

You can't be sick, if you ward off the preliminary action of disease microbes, with this greatest of all medicines of modern times. Price 50c and $1.00. Fully guaranteed.

High-priced Officials.

The Metropolitan Life Insurance Company figured in the greater part of the day's proceedings before the insurance investigating committee in Albany, N. Y., yesterday. John R. Hegeman, president of the company, was the first witness, and the expenses of the company were further gone into. It was brought out that Mr. Hegeman's salary is the same as that of John A. McCall, president of the New York Life—$100,000. Previous to 1905, however, Mr. Hegeman received $90,000. The salary of Vice President Haley Fiske is $75,000; George H. Gaston, the second vice president, receives $37,500, and Frank O. Ayres, third vice president, receives $16,250.

It was shown that in 1904 $1,940,044 was paid for salaries, of which 16 officers received $308,105. No executive officer, Mr. Hegeman said, now receives any other compensation than his salary. In detailing the growth of the company's business, Mr. Hegeman said that 35 years ago less than $250,000 would have bought out the company, while today $250,000,000 would not do it. He remembered the time when the company had to go out and borrow the money to pay a death claim, while now the company has a death claim every minute of the 24 hours, and is able to pay them.

The system of agencies and the manner of obtaining business in the field was taken up. It was brought out that the average salary of an agent in the field is $11.62 a week. An assistant superintendent's salary averages $18 a week, which, with commissions, may run to $25 weekly. The average salary of superintendents is from $25 to $50 a week. These officers are in the direct charge of the agents in the field.

Mr. Hegeman said that when the finance committee consulted him about increasing salaries in 1904, "I said that I had received $90,000 for two years and was satisfied and gratified and did not need any increase. They agreed, however, in consideration of my 35 years' service, to increase it to $100,000. I have not drawn it, however, and do not intend to do so. Of all the words that I abhor the perpendicular pronoun has the primacy, but I would like to say that I have averaged a salary of $50,000 only and have continued with the company to my pecuniary disadvantage. Fifteen years ago I was guaranteed $100,000 to go elsewhere."

Negro Rescued From Mob.

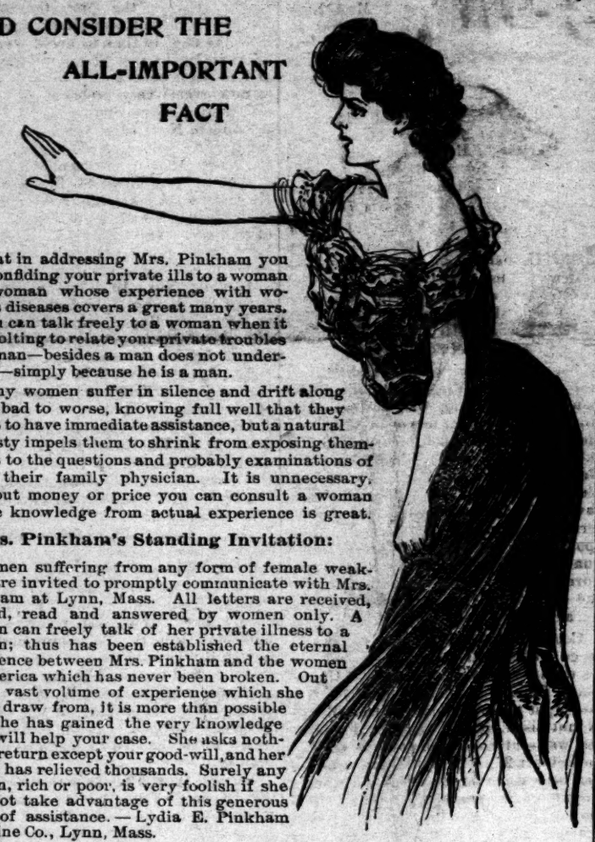
Racing an auto thirty miles an hour, Sheriff Nelms, of Fulton, Ga., dashed into a mob of 500 citizens, who were about to lynch Jim Walker, a negro, for criminal assault on Mrs. Moore, a prominent Atlanta woman, and succeeded in persuading the would-be lynchers to let the law take its course. The rope was already around the negro's neck, and he was being dragged to a telephone pole when the sheriff arrived. Sheriff Nelms would have probably failed in his efforts to rescue the negro if he had not been aided by Moore, the husband of the outraged woman. In return for Moore's assistance, Sheriff Nelms promised that the husband should spring the trap when the negro is legally hanged. In pleading with the mob to spare the negro for the law, Mr. Moore announced the offer of the sheriff and declared he proposed to accept it. With his finger in the face of Walker and with the mob surrounding him, Mr. Moore exclaimed, looking the prisoner squarely in the eyes: "You black wretch, I have been given the privilege and the pleasure of springing the trigger that will send you to death, and I propose to do it. I will break your neck, you guilty scoundrel." Without so much as flinching, the negro replied: "I did not do that crime." The outrage was committed three weeks ago while Mrs. Moore was in a flower garden at her home on Poach Tree street, the most fashionable street in Atlanta. The negro has been chased persistently ever since, but was only captured yesterday morning. He was taken to Moore's home for identification, Mrs. Moore screamed. "He is the wretch," and fainted. In five minutes a crowd gathered and took the negro from the two officers. Mrs. Moore's two sons were in the crowd, making desperate efforts to shoot the negro. A rope was put around the negro's neck, and he was being dragged to execution, kicked and clubbed at every step by the crowd. Some one telephoned Sheriff Nelms, and he sprang into an auto and ran full speed to the scene. The mob parted as the auto raced madly through and, as stated above, finally gave up the prisoner.

Herb W. Edwards Injured.

Herb W. Edwards, of Des Moines, Iowa, got a fall on an icy walk last winter, spraining his wrist and bruising his knees. "The next day," he says, "they were so sore and stiff I was afraid I would have to stay in bed, but I rubbed them well with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications all soreness had disappeared. I feel that this bottle of Pain Balm saved me several days' time, to say nothing of the suffering." This liniment is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

STOP! WOMEN,

AND CONSIDER THE ALL-IMPORTANT FACT



That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private ills to a woman—a woman whose experience with woman's diseases covers a great many years.

You can talk freely to a woman when it is revolting to relate your private troubles to a man—besides a man does not understand—simply because he is a man.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probably examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation:

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.—Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Following we publish two letters from a woman who accepted this invitation. Note the result.

First letter.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"For eight years I have suffered something terrible every month with my periods. The pains are excruciating and I can hardly stand them. My doctor says I have ovarian and womb trouble, and I must go through an operation if I want to get well. I do not want to submit to it if I can possibly help it. Please tell me what to do. I hope you can relieve me."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 59th and E. Capitol Sts., Benning P. O., Washington, D. C.

Second letter.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"After following carefully your advice, and taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I am very anxious to send you my testimonial, that others may know their value and what you have done for me.

"As you know, I wrote you that my doctor said I must have an operation or I could not live. I then wrote you, telling you my ailments. I followed your advice and am entirely well. I can walk miles without an ache or a pain, and I owe my life to you and to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I wish every suffering woman would read this testimonial and realize the value of writing to you and your remedy."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 59th and E. Capitol Streets, Benning P. O., Washington, D. C.

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women whose testimony is so unquestionable, you cannot well say, without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me." If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it is free and always helpful.

Followers of Gypsy Bess.

Marie Davis and Edna Hartz, remarkably handsome girls, aged 23 and 18 years, respectively, were sentenced to terms in the Pennsylvania penitentiary by Judge Sadler at Carlisle yesterday, on conviction of charges of highway robbery and assault and battery on Thomas Zell, a hearty farmer living near Carlisle. The girls, who thought Zell had a big roll of money, induced him to take them driving, and on the trip Miss Davis, it was testified, struck him on the head with a beer bottle, the two throwing him from the carriage after robbing him of about $50. This occurred August 1. The court yesterday told the young women they had perjured themselves at their late trial and imposed a sentence of two years and $100 fine on Miss Davis and one year and $50 on Miss Hartz. The girls are the first of their sex to be convicted of highway robbery in southern Pennsylvania. Each expected mercy from the lower court and was badly broken up.

A Creeping Death.

Blood poison creeps up towards the heart, causing death. J. E. Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound, and save his life. Best in the world for burns and sores. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

A Liquid Cold Cure.

A Cough Syrup which drives a cold out of the system by acting as a cathartic on the bowels is offered in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. Clears the throat, strengthens the lungs and bronchial tubes. The mother's friend and the children's favorite. Best for Croup, Whooping-Cough, etc. A liquid cold cure and the only Cough Syrup which moves the bowels and works all cold out of the system. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING. NOV. 10, 1905.

THE DEATH of Midshipman Branch was clearly the result of the "code of honor" which is employed at the Naval Academy. The code, it is admitted, conflicts with the regulations of the academy, but the officers of the institution pass it by, and whenever there is a fight on between two of the cadets it is seldom seen by any of the authorities. When a man is "called out" he must promptly accept; likewise it is required that a man must stay in the ring until he collapses or until twenty-eight rounds have been fought, which is more than the regular prize ring rules require. It has been shown that Branch was a smaller and a lighter man than his opponent and that in making his report, which brought about the fight, he was acting exactly under the rules of the academy—not those of the cadets. The whole affair was a most brutal one and all concerned should be required to pay the full penalty, especially the officers whose sworn duty it is to see that the rules and regulations of the academy as provided by the government are observed and obeyed.

WHEN race tracks were in operation in Alexandria county people in Richmond contracted the "moral" fever then prevailing and cried against such places as evils; but it is now the intention of the same community to petition the legislature to have the laws so modified as to permit such pastimes in Richmond when the State fair shall be opened. Not only have the people of Richmond manifested similar inconsistency, but Washingtonians saw everything wrong in horse racing so long as it was conducted on the south bank of the Potomac, but nothing objectionable in it when it was transferred to Washington.

ONE OF THE reasons urged by Mr. Summers upon Secretary Shaw and the administration for the removal of the U. S. Internal Revenue office from this city to Abingdon was that Washington county might be retained in the republican column and help make Col. Slemp's district more solidly republican. In Tuesday's election the two democratic candidates for the House of Delegates from Washington defeated their republican opponents, Mr. Shaw, Col. Slemp and Mr. Summers to the contrary, notwithstanding.

PORTSMOUTH, England, has passed an ordinance for the suppression of cock crowing. The chicken fanciers say it cannot be suppressed, but the London News says that a partial remedy consists in placing the perch where the cock roosts so high that when he stands up to crow he knocks his head against the roof and desists. There are numbers of loud mouthed republican politicians who should be made to sleep in attics.

SECRETARY SHAW, of the U. S. Treasury, it is reported, is very much disappointed at the poor showing the republicans made in Virginia, particularly in those section of the State in which he spoke in behalf of that party. The Virginians did not want national politics injected into their State campaign nor did they relish foreign interference. Hence the rebuke.

A NAVAL CADET, 22 years old, at the naval academy, who had married while at the academy, which was against the regulations of the institution, was not allowed to resign, but was yesterday dismissed. The matter of the cadet who last week killed his opponent in a prize fight, together with those who took part in the brutal affair, will be "investigated!"

NOTHING has been heard of Chairman Phillips, of the city republican committee, since the election, and little before.

AS WAS Slemp to Agnew, so was Phillips to Crupper.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 10.

Despondent because of financial troubles, and in full view of his wife, Michael McDonnell, 38 years of age, committed suicide at 7:30 this morning by slitting this throat with a razor at his home, 3441 M street northwest. McDonnell who is a feed-dealer and recently purchased his old business for $3,000 more than he sold it for, complained that he was becoming more and more involved in debt. His wife seems to be at a loss for an explanation as to why her husband committed suicide, as she did not know of any financial troubles or that anything in particular was causing him anxiety. McDonnell arose earlier than was his habit this morning and thinking perhaps that something was wrong with her husband, Mrs. McDonnell followed him. After going to the bathroom where he obtained a razor he went into a room next to his wife's bed chamber and there before the looking glass deliberately drew the razor across his throat. His wife fearing that her husband was sick, inquired if anything was the matter. Trying the door of the room to which he had gone, Mrs. McDonnell found that it was locked. Hurriedly securing a chair she peered over the transom, just in time to see her husband draw the razor across his throat.

"I believe that Roosevelt stands a very good chance of being nominated by the southern democrats to succeed himself. Nine out of ten men in the South would vote for him today if the race question could be sidetracked." Ex-Senator John L. McLaurin, of South Carolina, who was a caller at the White House this morning, made the foregoing remarks and continued by painting a roseate picture of the republican party's chances of success south of Mason and Dixon's line, "if the race question could be eliminated." "The President's southern trip did the republican party a world of good," said Judge McLaurin, "and added thousands to the President's list of personal friends. I spent election day in New York city, and though I do not approve of Mr. Hearst, I am as sure as I'm standing here that he was elected mayor. I took an automobile ride over the city to see how the voting was going and I want to tell you this: The way they treat the negroes in the South is not a marker for the manner in which they clubbed white men over in the big city last Tuesday. When I started out I was dead against Hearst. By four o'clock in the afternoon I was ready to vote for him."

"On the Miller Grove line just beyond the postoffice is a lake. Immediately back of that, on the hill, look for my remains," Under the date of Abington, Pa., the above letter was received by a clerk in the government printing office this morning. It was signed "Henry M. Allen." A clerk of that name is on the rolls of the printing office. He had been cashier of one of the money lending concerns which was recently put out of business by order of the public printer. The letter was turned over to the police, who are now making inquiries as to the possible suicide.

Reports on the year's work from delegates were heard at the morning session of the American Association of Farmers' Institute Workers at the National Hotel this morning. G. A. Putman reported on the work in Ontario; M. B. Critchfield, Pennsylvania; J. N. Harper, South Carolina; P. A. Yoder, Utah; George Atkins, Vermont; A. M. Soule, Virginia; J. B. Garvin, West Virginia; Delber Utter, Wisconsin; Hubert Vreeland, Kentucky, and John Hamilton, of the Agriculture Department, on general institute work. This afternoon the delegates visited Arlington and Mt. Vernon. Tomorrow at noon they will be received by President Roosevelt and at 2 p. m. by Secretary Wilson, of the Agriculture Department. Tonight Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Willet M. Hays and Miss Blanche Maddock, of Canada, will address the workers.

Arguments were heard in the Supreme Court of the United States today in the case of James B. Howard versus the Commonwealth of Kentucky. Howard has been three times convicted of the murder of William Goebel, Governor of Kentucky, on January 30, 1900. Upon his first conviction in 1900 he was sentenced to death. The Kentucky Court of Appeals reversed the judgment. He was tried again in 1902 and his punishment was fixed at life imprisonment. Upon a second appeal he again obtained a reversal. He was tried and convicted a third time in April, 1903, and again sentenced to life imprisonment. Motion for a new trial was overruled and appeal was taken to the U. S. Supreme Court. Howard was represented by W. M. Smith, who argued his case. The State of Kentucky presented its side through attorney general Napoleon B. Hays. Smith submits his case of the argument that one of the jurors, J. C. Alexander, was discharged by the trial judge after he had qualified as a juror and after the peremptory challenges had been exhausted. The charge was made because Alexander, jocularly, it is asserted, cried out to one Ben Hackett, who had been excused from serving on the jury, "Hello, Ben, I'm glad they cut you off of this jury, as I did not want to serve on this jury with you." This, he argued, denied the accused due process of law and deprived him of the equal protection of the law. Attorney General Hays contended that the decision of the trial court upon challenges to the panel are final and not subject to exception or review, that this governs the trial of all accused of crime, and did not therefore deny Howard equal protection of the law.

Wm. L. Merry, U. S. Minister to Salvador, Costa Rice and Nicaragua, has sent a cable to the State Department saying that an investigation of the recent reports that a revolutionary movement against the Honduras government, involving a proposed invasion of Honduras from Salvador and Nicaragua, shows that they are entirely without foundation. The country is quiet.

The U. S. cruiser Columbia, with Secretary of War Taft on board, returning from his trip to the Isthmus of Panama, arrived this morning at Guantanamo, Cuba, where it is understood the secretary will make an examination of the new United States naval station.

"On the Willow Grove line beyond the postoffice is a lake; back of the lake on the hill look for my remains." This is the sentence in a letter from Henry M. Allen, employee of the printing office, written from Albron, Pa., near Philadelphia, which has terrified his family. It is feared he has committed suicide.

Admiral Sands, superintendent of the Naval Academy, will hold a conference with Secretary Bonaparte this afternoon for the consideration of the Midshipman Branch incident. A report is now in the hands of the secretary, but Mr. Bonaparte wants a full understanding of the case before he makes a report to President Roosevelt, which the latter has requested. The facts seem to be practically simple, and there is no dispute about any phase of the case. Branch called Meriweather out, after the latter had called him a "sneak," this epithet being occasioned by Branch's inspection of Meriweather's room and the discovery of civilian clothes in a suit case Meriweather had under his bed. Branch had not reported the discovery, but Meriweather held that he had acted the part of a sneak in opening the suit case. The fight was declared a draw in the twenty-third round upon the approach of officers, and both contestants left without assistance. Branch's fatal injury did not develop until the following morning. Throughout both branches of the service the affair has created the widest discussion. Congressional and executive action are both expected, but by officers it is felt that the elimination of the "code" at the academies is impossible.

The Bureau of Statistics of the Agricultural Department today announced its monthly crop report as follows: Cotton—condition of entire crop November 1, 1905, was 68.8

Contributed to Campaign Funds.

New York, Nov. 10.—The Metropolitan Life Insurance Company was caught in Chief Inquisitor Hughes' drag net this morning, as the other companies have been before it, when the admission was made by President John R. Hegeman that his company had contributed in 1896 $8,500 for the defeat of William J. Bryan. The fact was also brought out that the Metropolitan has kept Andrew Hamilton. He also stated that in 1896 the company paid $1,000 to the Palmer and Buckner sound money league and $7,500 to the republican national committee.

News of the Day.

The rate for money on call on the New York Stock Exchange yesterday went to 15 per cent. shortly after noon, the highest figure in more than twe years.

Two thousand kegs of powder were touched off at Fairchance, Pa., yesterday, to prove to a coroner's jury that exploding powder doesn't make a hole in the ground.

Right Rev. Thomas F. Davis, bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan, died last night of pneumonia at his home in Detroit. He was 74 years old and had been executive head of the Diocese of Michigan since 1889, when he went there from St. Peter's Church, Philadelphia.

Mayor McClellan in New York last night made public a statement, saying that the election returns show his election by a plurality of 4,180 votes, and that he will take all legitimate means to protect his rights. A statement was issued from Mr. Hearst's headquarters saying that an examination of the alleged defective ballots which were thrown out on election day shows more than 8,000, which he declares should have been counted for him.

At the meeting of the national board of directors of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Washington, yesterday, it was reported that nearly $15,000 had been raised during the past month toward the fund for the construction of the memorial Continental Hall, now building there. At the last meeting of the congress of the Daughters in April the statement was made that $275,000 was needed to comple the hall, and of this between $50,000 and $60,000 has been promised or contributed up to this time.

Terrible Scenes at Cronstadt.

Cronstadt was the scene of a terrible conflict Wednesday night and yesterday and the news has caused intense excitement in the capital. Hundreds of soldiers and sailors mutinied and sided with the strikers and revolutionists. A battle occurred between loyal troops and the rebels. Machine guns were used and hundreds of people were killed and wounded. Houses were sacked and fired and part of the city has been burned.

The mutiny was complete, according to the latest reports, not only the sailors, but the garrison of some of the forts joining in the insurrection. The few soldiers and sailors who remained loyal fought all night against the mutineers and the workmen who enlisted under the banner of revolt. Barricades were thrown up.

The inhabitants of Cronstadt are in a panic. The boats to St. Petersburg have stopped running and telephone and telegraph communications have been severed. The panic stricken refugees who escaped by boat say the Maxim guns were fired all night, and that this morning the streets were literally flowing with blood.

Yesterday two regiments of Cossacks and the Imperial Horse Guards were dispatched to Cronstadt from St. Petersburg, and a regiment of Uhlans was sent there from Oranienbaum, a few miles west of Peterhof. Altogether about 10,000 troops are engaged in quelling the insurrection.

The Uhlans deserted to the mutineers and fought against the imperial troops. The latter lost eight officers, killed or wounded. The artillerymen from the fortress have joined the revolutionists.

The American charge d'affaires, Spencer Eddy, has telegraphed to the governor of Cronstadt requesting protection for American interests there. The Navy Club, at Cronstadt, has been wrecked and many shops burned. A great crowd of rioters, including sailors, marched through the town, shooting and otherwise terrorizing the population. The clergy of Cronstadt have organized a procession, hoping to prevent the spread of incendiarism and pilage.

The Fox Hunters.

Grafton hounds were taken out yesterday, the meet being at Zulu, 10 miles from Upperville. Mr. Smith hunted six couple of American hounds, with C. C. Eastman, the Virginia fox hunter, as his whip. Only 15 appeared at Covert Side. Mr. Higginson and his party from Boston failed to get up in time to see the hounds cast, and so were not in the day's sport. The only lady out was Mrs. Maddux, of Warrenton, who, riding Searchlight, led the field for an hour. Mrs. Tom Peirce, of Boston, and Mrs. Henderson lost their horses and were out of the run. The hounds were cast into Hatcher's wood, and after following a cold trail got up a fox, which was run for nine minutes when the pack of the Orange County Hunt Club of New York, wintering at The Plains, joined in, and the Grafton pack, under the rules of the match, was called off. Malbon Richardson, of Boston, riding St. Nichol, went down at a flight of rail, with a ditch on both sides, and his horse fell upon him. He escaped with bruises.

Yesterday was the eighth day's trial of the Grafton-Middlesex match, and neither pack has yet succeeded in killing a fox. Each hunt has three more trials. Middlesex hunts today, the meet being at Middleburg at 7 o'clock.

The Grafton pack in yesterday's run of the English-American hound trials found a fox in the afternoon on the Dulany estate, and after a great run of 18 minutes sent him to earth at Newford. There were only four riders up at the time.

The Killing of Young Branch.

Colonel Branch, of New York, and his sister, Mrs. Cabell, of Richmond, called on the Secretary of the Navy and the President yesterday and had a long talk with them in regard to the killing of Cadet Branch at Annapolis. The President and Mr. Bonaparte expressed sorrow and sympathy, and assured Colonel Branch and his sister that the department would do everything in its power to investigate the matter. Colonel Branch declares that Midshipman Meriwether was a much taller and larger man than his son, and that the fight was a brutal one. He further asserts that Meriwether took every opportunity to insult his son, and that the latter was compelled, to preserve his honor, to resent the insults by a challenge to fight.

Virginia News.

George Burton, a well-known resident of Winchester, died yesterday evening, aged 50 years.

Wednesday night at Monroe, Amherst county, A. H. Lemon, aged 70 years, and Mrs. Sallie Fifer, aged 65, both of that place, were married.

Mrs. Bessie Catlett, aged 35 years, wife of Mr Charles Catlett, died suddenly in Staunton yesterday. Before her marriage she was Miss Bessie Hunton, Warrenton, a niece of Gen. Eppa Hunton.

Mr. R. D. Payne and Miss Lucy Snellings, daughter of Mr. William E. Snellings, both of Stafford county, were married Wednesday night at the parsonage of the Methodist Church at Stafford Court House.

John Norris, the oldest citizen of Leesburg, died yesterday of paralysis, aged 94 years. He was the founder of the firm of Norris Brothers, general contractors, which has been in business under various names for nearly 75 years.

The chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy and the Memorial Society of the University of Virginia decided yesterday to erect two memorial tablets in commemoration of those students of the University of Virginia who went from the college in the civil war and died in service.

The three-story office building and warehouse of the Virginia Packing Company in Richmond, was destroyed by fire last night. The loss on building and stock will be $250,000, with $156,000 insurance. Practically the entire plant was destroyed, only the live stock, including 200 hogs and 15 horses, being saved. The flames started in the slaughtering department, presumably from spontaneous combustion. An immense quantity of meat ready for shipment was burned. The flames mounted high in the air and the Rosengek Brewery was for an hour in great danger.

Cephas Poindexter, a negro under sentence to hang for the murder in Franklin county several months ago of United States Deputy Marshal Z. B. Wade, was last night taken to Roanoke from Rocky Mount disguised as a woman. Poindexter was sentenced to die on the scaffold on October 27 last, and all preparations had been made for the execution when a respite of two weeks was received from Gov. Montague. The reprieve was granted so that alleged new evidence might be considered. Today was the date set for the hanging, but yesterday a second respite was granted, which gives Poindexter a lease of two more weeks. Fearing mob violence because of the delay, the sheriff dressed the prisoner in skirts, slipped him on a night train, and took him to Roanoke, accompanied by a deputy.

Mysterious Murder and Suicide.

The young woman, who was 17 years old, was found when the bridal chamber doors were broken open lying on the floor in front of an oak-trimmed dresser. On the only bed in the room was the body of Mr. Johnston, the newly made bridegroom. One bullet had penetrated the breast, another entering the right cheek and a third, whose results were trivial, grazed the left temple, inflicting a surface scratch.

Miss Helen Hope, 17 years old, and Randolph Johnston, aged 28 years, were married Wednesday evening. A crowd of friends attended the ceremony and participated in the succeeding festivities, which lasted until almost midnight. Then the bride and bridegroom drove to their supposed future home, both carrying the best wishes of those who knew them. From the aspect of the bridal chamber, it is believed that some time between 1 o'clock and 9 o'clock yesterday morning Mrs. Johnston produced a pistol, which was of only .22 caliber, and shot her husband first either in the breast or cheek. Either wound would have killed him. The bullet which grazed the forehead probably was the second or third. Blood from the bullet wound in his breast flowed on the bedclothing and some leaked through on the carpet.

After dealing the deadly shots Mrs. Johnston, it appears, walked toward the bureau. She took only one shot at herself, but that was enough. The revolver muzzle was placed in her mouth. The bullet plowed through her head and came out a little behind and below her left ear. Death in each case was almost instantaneous.

The cause of the tragedy is a mystery. Helen Hope had been loved by Johnston since she was a small girl. For a year or so she returned his affections, and since the announcement of the wedding every prediction was of a happy life for the couple.

Daughters of the Confederacy.

The Daughters of the Confederacy continued their meetings in Richmond yesterday evening. The president, Miss Ruth Jennings, opened the session yesterday, and Rev. Dr. Russell Cecil, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, offered prayer. The report of the Jefferson Davis Monument Association was submitted by Mrs. Thomas S. McCullough. The call of the chapters was resumed. Mrs. James Williams made a report of the monuments that had been photographed. Mrs. A. J. Montague was invited to the platform in behalf of the Home for Needy Confederate Women and made an appeal for aid for that institution.

An invitation from E. V. Valentine, the sculptor who is at work upon the Davis monument, to visit his studio and inspect the work, was accepted by the ladies.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury,

Today's Telegraphic News

State Fair.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., Nov. 10.—The State fair promoters are greatly elated today over the prospect of success. It is said that Henry Fairfax will probably be one of the officers. A charter is to be applied for in a few days and the capital stock may be $200,000. A move will be made in the legislature to have the racing laws modified so as to permit wide scope in the matter.

Conditions in Russia.

London, Nov., 10.—The greatest anxiety is felt in royal circles for the safety of the Czar and his family. It is feared that the Russian ruler can no longer rely on the protection of the troops and that his sole chance to escape from the city in time to avoid personal danger is by the sea. Should all the ships at Kronstadt be seized by the mutineers, as now seems very probable, his situation would become precarious.

London, Nov. 10 —A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Paris says that all the available troops are being sent from St. Petersburg to Kronstadt. Among the reinforcements being dispatched there are detatchments of artillery. The arsenals at Kronstadt have been plundered and the arms stolen by the mutineers.

London, Nov. 10.—The correspondent of the Reuter Telegraph Company at Kronstadt, Russia, wires that the rioting and mutiny have been suppressed and the authorities are masters of the situation. Large numbers of trusted troops have arrived at Kronstadt to assist in preserving order.

London, Nov. 10.—The correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company at Copenhagen, Denmark, wires that news received there from Riga, Russia, says that the railway strike there has come to an end.

E. T. Stead, editor of the Review of Reviews, who returned today from Russia, where he had been for some time, in an interview among other things said: "While I am an optimist, I think we should have a troop ship ready to go to Kronstadt from St. Petersburg and take aboard British subjects who may at any moment find the city like the commune at Paris, only worse. We face one of the greatest revolutions in the world's history. The gravity of the situation is totally unappreciated by the press of this country."

Vienna, Nov. 10.—It is reported here that the crew of the Russian steamer Ismalia, which sailed from Odessa recently, mutinied. They demanded and received 800 roubles from the captain and passengers, but had proceeded only about twenty miles, when they regretted the moderation of their demands, and made a demand for more money, finally taking 1,000 roubles and all the jewelry of the passengers.

London, Nov. 10.—Detailed reports received here from Kronstadt state that irksome duties at the fortress and the spreading of socialism among the artillerymen of the barracks caused the soldiers to join the mutinous sailors who have been for a long time in a mood of discontent. The reports say that there have been hundreds of casualties among the Jews, the worst sufferers, their shops being pillaged and the defenceless slaughtered. The artillery bought into the town by soldiers was fired among the rioters killing many. Hundreds fell, but many of the mutineers stood firm and replied with their rifles, inflicting great casualties among the loyal troops. The struggle however, was unequal. The rebels finally fled, many throwing their rifles away, as they ran Paris, Nov. 10.—A St. Petersburg dispatch says: "The muting at Kronstadt has assume large proportions. Soldiers and sailors, supported by workingmen, are fighting desperately against the troops sent from Peterhoff. Barricades erected in the streets have been stormed. At any moment the forts may open fire on the combatants, and it is quite possible that a shell may find its way into the Imperial Palace.

St. Petersburg Nov. 10.—It is reported here that the troops at Kronstadt are surrounded by 6,000 mutinous sailors. The troops are holding them in check.

Affairs in Finland.

Helsingfors, Finland, Nov. 10.—The manufacturers have agreed to pay the strikers fifty per cent. of their wages during the time they were out on strike recently.

A dispatch from St. Petersburg says that the Grand Duke Vladimir on last Monday ordered a brigade of the guards, two batteries and several regiments of infantry sent to Helsingfors to overawe the Finlanders who were then making their demands for freedom, to manage their own affairs. The revolutionists who held Governor General Obelinsky a practical prisoner by inducing the Govnor to send a note to St. Petersburg, were able to prevent the troops from being sent here.

Fell 100 Feet in Smokestack.

Bridgeport, Conn., Nov. 10.—By the giving way of the staging inside the 100-foot steel smokestack of the Union Metallic Company yesterday, Edward Sassey and Harris McDerbald, both of Philadelphia, were dropped from the top to the bottom of the shaft and terribly injured. The men were employed by a Philadelphia firm and were engaged in cleaning the smokestack. They were taken to a hospital and owing to internal injuries Sassey's recovery is doubtful. McDerbald suffered a broken arm and ankle.

Monument Dedicated.

Deposit, N. Y. Nov. 10.—The great granite monument erected to commemorate the first breaking of ground for the Erie Railroad seventy years ago, was dedicated with appropiate ceremonies, today. The town is gaily decorated and special trains brought thousands of visitors from the surrounding country. Hon. James T. Rogers, of Binghamton, acted as master of ceremonies and the principal address was delivered by Hon. John B. Stanchfield of Elmira.

Every Ounce You Eat.

Every ounce of food you eat that fails to digest does a pound of harm. It turns the entire meal into poison. This not only deprives the blood of the necessary tissue-building material, but it poisons it. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a perfect digestant. It digests the food regardless of the condition of the stomach. It allows that organ to rest and get strong again. Believes Belching, Heart Burn, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Palpitation of the Heart, etc. Sold by W. W. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Prince Louis in New York.

New York, Nov. 10.—Prince Louis of Battenburg, and his fellow officers of the British fleet in the Hudson river, had scarcely recovered from the entertaining that was accorded them last night when the time came to take up today's programme. Without exception the Englishmen from Admiral to able seaman expressed themselves as being delighted with their first night in Manhattan. The principal event today was a luncheon given on Governor's Island by General Grant with the Prince as the guest of honor. Upon their return from Governor's Island the Prince and his party went to the Brooklyn navy yard, where a reception was held with Admiral Coghlan as the host. There was much friendly rivalry in advance between the army and the navy to see which one could make the best impression upon his highness. Tonight the Prince and his officers will attend the navy alumni dinner, and tomorrow they will go on an excursion to West Point and take dinner there with Col. Robert M. Thompson. The North river was ablaze last night with lights from the electrical decorations of the long line of British and American warships, and both shores of the river were lined with thousands of people to witness the display. So brilliant a spectacle has not been witnessed in New York waters since the occasion of the welcome of Admiral Dewey back from Manila. Outlined in fire the seventeen ships at impressive distances apart, and extending from Fifty-fourth street, to Grant's monument, lighted up the Hudson with the aspect of a carnival. A myriad of electric lights were used in the decoration of each one of the fleet and search lights were thrown in all directions.

Announcement was made today that during the stay of she squadron here, there would be a pugilistic contest between able seaman Kirby, champion welter weight of the English navy, and able seaman Collins, welter weight of the United States navy. Kirby belongs on the cruiser Bedford, and Collins is aboard the Kearsarge. The bout will be for a purse of $100, and a cup offered by Prince Louis.

Resignation of Minister.

Paris, Nov. 10.—M. Berteaux, Minister of War in President Loubet's Cabinet, has resigned.

Serious scenes were enacted in the Chamber of Deputies today. Premier Rouvier had asked that the discussion of the general policy of the Cabinet be postponed. This created a protest from numerous members. M. Berteaux, Minister of War, and M. Etienne, Minister of the Interior, were hissed as they arose in the center of the chamber.

They were considered by the other members as responsible for the postponement. Both members following the hissing took their portfolios and retired pursued by more hisses. A crisis in the ministerial affairs of France are considered imminent and as a consequence of today's proceedings it is said that only M. Rouvier will remain in the Cabinet. M. Berteaux announced that he had consent to retain his port folio despite the scene, owing to assurances from M. Rouvier that the chambers intentions were of fulfilling entirely the republican programme of the Cabinet's policy, notably concerning the separation of the State and church. After making this statement, to friends, Berteaux, in a fit of anger, jumped from his seat and announced his resignation.

The chamber voted confidence in the government. The vote stood 310 to 147.

Alfonso Hunting Boars.

Berlin, Nov. 10.—Early this morning Kaiser Wilhelm and his guest, King Alfonso, of Spain, left Hanover in a motor car, and proceeded to the forest of Springs, some twenty miles away, where they spent the day hunting for wild boars, which abound in those regions. This sport, in which both the the Kaiser and Alfonso delight to participate, is an extremely dangerous pastime. A wild boar when closely pursued frequently will turn on his pursuer and charge him at full speed. Unless the hunter can check the infuriated animal with a well aimed shot, he will probably be gored to death before his companions can come to his assistance. It is precisely this danger which makes the sport exciting, however. In view of the responsibility resting upon those in charge of the hunt to protect the valuable life of the young Spanish king, special precautions were taken to minimize the danger of the hunt today, and to save Alfonso from all possible injury. The Kaiser and Alfonso will return to Berlin tonight.

Mysterious Death.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 10.—The body of Joseph Deligo lies in the county morgue and several people from the Hotel Roma, No. 1113 Pennsylvania avenue, are locked up in the police station, suspected of knowledge of his murder. Deligo went to the hotel at midnight and was assigned a room on the third floor. Within a very few moments a crash was heard and Deligo's body was found on the paving stones at Slocum alley, on the side of the building. Deligo registered from Monongahela City. Two other strangers entered the hotel immediately after Deligo. They were assigned a room on the second floor, immediately under that occupied by Deligo, and, it is said, were angered when Deligo refused to occupy a room with them. The lower sash of the window in Deligo's room was shattered, and there are other evidences of violence. The upper sash of the room occupied by the two men was mysteriously broken and they were greatly excited when an investigation was made.

Seized Burglars and Dropped Dead.

Washington, N. J., Nov. 10.—Mrs. George Bowne was awakened at 3 o'clock this morning by a burglar in her room ransacking the bureau. She sprang out of bed, rang an electric bell for help and grappled with the burglar. When her daughter came to her assistance the burglar fled down stairs and escaped. A moment later Mrs. Bowne, who is sixty years old, dropped to the floor dead. There has been an average of six robberies here each night for a week, and it is believed that an organized gang from Paterson is doing the work. Chloroform has been used in three cases.

The Exact Thing Required for Constipation.

"As a certain purgative and stomach purifier Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets seem to be the exact thing required, strong enough for the most robust, yet mild enough and safe for children and without that terrible griping so common to most purgatives," say R. Investigating Charges of Fraud.

New York, Nov. 10.—Under the direction of Attorney General Mayer of the State of New York and with the assistance of District Attorney Jerome, the grand jury today began the investigation of the charge of fraud and prostitution of the ballot made in connection with the election in this city. The grand jury met at 11 o'clock and Attorney General Mayer immediately appeared before them. The jury will report to Recorder Goff at one o'clock this afternoon and whether they will return indictments against election officials then is a matter of conjecture. Superintendent Morgan received a number of ballots this morning which had been found by policemen and others in alleyways and out-of-the-way places, and it was apparent that they had not been counted. These ballots, it is said, were found in the districts of two prominent political leaders, and it is thought that the investigation which the superintendent is making regarding them will lead to the indictment of at least two persons "higher up."

W. R. Hearst has offered an additional reward of $10,000 for the conviction of a Tammany district leader of frauds against the ballot. This makes the total rewards offered by him $27,000.

Alderman Haggerty, who was arrested on complaint of an election poll watcher for assault, was brought into court this morning for examination. Lawyers secured a delay of the case until December 10.

Shortly after the noon hour it developed that a subpoena had been issued for President John R. Voobis of the board of elections to appear before the grand jury and to have with him the registry books of the fifth election district of the 26th assembly district. It is charged that the face of the returns from this district was changed and that there was much fraudulent voting there. Mr. Voorhis accepted service and will appear before the grand jury this afternoon. The four election inspectors in this district, has, it is stated, been summoned to appear before the grand jury to testify. Former Sheriff Thomas Dunn is the Tammany leader in the 26th assembly district.

The grand jury reported to Recorder Goff shortly after one o'clock this afternoon, that they had not concluded the business before them, and the recorder ordered them to meet again on Monday.

After the grand jury had adjourned it was learned that ten indictments were ordered to be drawn up and that they will be filed with Recorder Goff on Monday. It is not known how many persons are involved in these ten indictments. No arrests, it is understood, will be made today.

One of the alleged fraud cases considered by the grand jury today was the fifth election district of the twenty-sixth assembly district. Former Sheriff Thos. Dunn is the democratic leader in this district and it was learned that Dunn, so far, has not been involved in any of the cases considered.

Train Jumped the Track.

Bluefield, W. Va., Nov. 10.—A freight train on the Norfolk & Western while going at a high rate of speed near Vivian, W. Va., today, jumped the track. Twenty cars and the engine were demolished. Engineer Henry Floyd, Fireman Crawford and Brakeman Patterson, were killed. The conductor and two other brakemen were seriously injured. Traffic will be delayed many hours.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Nov. 10.—The money situation continues to be the dominating factor in the stock market. The prevailing rates for call money have induced a fair amount of liquidation, which has been accompanied by considerable selling for short account, the bears taking the position that either the money rate or stock prices will have to go down. Interests committed to the bull side make the point that today's loans carry over until Monday, and that with the money rate out of the way tomorrow the volume of liquidation will decrease materially. A large part of the buying during the first hour was the covering of shorts, but there was stubborn support in a number of closely held specialties London bought between 20,000 and 25,000 shares and helped to cause a general improvement in prices.

Request Denied.

An informal request was lately made through the State Department to the French government to prevent the disgrace by imprisonment of Elliott Fitch Shepherd, of New York, who was recently sentenced to three months' imprisonment and to pay a fine of 500 francs for running down and killing a young girl with his automobile last August. The French authorities replied that they could not with any sense of respect interfere with the ruling of the court's law, that the imprisonment was the minimum term provided, and public opinion was greatly excited over the case. It is understood, however, that full time will be given to Mr. Shepherd in which to present himself for punishment. This probably means that he will be allowed six months before coming up to serve his sentence. It is hinted that if the excitement in the meantime subsides an arrangement may be made by which Mr. Shepherd will avoid imprisonment in consideraiion of his paying an increased compensation to the family of the victim. The court, in addition to sentencing Mr. Shepherd to a fine and imprisonment, ordered that he pay 20,000 francs damages to the family of the deceased.

The Strike in Austria.

The "passive resistance" strike movement became effective on the railroads in Austria yesterday morning at the Viennese stations. Already the traffic delays are serious. Reports from Bohemia say the situation is serious and rapidly growing worse. The government is preparing for possible disorders. Troops are being got in readiness for active service, and further reinforcements are being sent to Prague, where a general strike is threatened in support of the demand for universal suffrage. The ministry of communications is revising the railroad regulations which will be immediately issued to the employees in the hope of breaking down the "passive resistance" movement. Among the advantages to the railroad men of this novel system of striking, is that they still draw pay and cannot be removed, as theoretically their attitude is correct. The railroad men of Austria are poorly paid. A shunter gets about $160 a year, and brakemen and conductors $220 and $280 respectively. It is estimated that the increase of 20 per cent. demanded will increase the payrolls $5,000,000. The men also demand shorter hours.

Governor Pennypacker, of Pennsylvania, has fixed February 10, 1906, for the meeting of the National Divorce Congress. The place is the hall of the New Willard Hotel, Washington, D. C.

Committee Meeting.

A meeting was held last night of the Council committees on streets, light and general laws to consider the recommendation of the Mayor concerning the paving and lighting of King street to the western limit of the city. There were also present Col. Duke, general manager of the Washington-Southern Railway, and Messrs. Stamper and Martin, of the engineer corps of that road; Dr. Rust, one of the county supervisors, and the county surveyor. The matter was gone over and it was decided that the city engineer, the county surveyor and engineers of the railroad company view the site of the proposed improvements, devise plans, &c., and submit them to the committee at its next meeting. The engineers visited the site today and will soon get up plans and estimates for the work. It is proposed that the city pave King street to the county line; that the county take up the work at that point and extend it to the new depot, and that the railroad company light that part of the road lying in the county.

Suit.

Messrs. Mschen & Moncure have entered suit in the Circuit Court for Alexandria county, for Mr. Courtland H. Smith against Mrs. Thomas R. Peirce, of Boston, for $1,000. In May, 1904, it is set forth, Mrs. Peirce purchased a horse from Mr. Smith, agreeing to pay $1,000 within a year for the animal. It is set forth that Mrs. Peirce kept the horse from May to October and then sent it back, saying that the animal was not as represented. Mr. Smith refused to receive the horse and it was sold at auction to pay freight charges, keep, &c. Mrs. Peirce, it is claimed, refused to make any settlement and thus the matter rested. This week, however, she attended the meetof the fox hunters at Upperville and there legal process was served upon her and she will now have to defend the suit in a Virginia court.

Burning of a Tugboat.

The tug Emma, of the Atlantic Power Barge Company's fleet, was burned to the water's edge at midnight Wednesday. Capt. O. A. Thompson, Mate Richard Roberts and the crew of six men escaped injury. The Washington tug Frank H. Ehrick stood by the blazing tugboat and rescued her crew. The fire occurred off the mouth of the Great Wicomico river and the blaze started near the boiler. The tug had in tow the barge Rondout, owned by the Atlantic Power Barge Company, owners of the Emma, and the barge McCabe from Washington. The convoy was bound to Norfolk. The Emma was a wooden vessel of 52 gross, 26 net tons, 70.2 feet long, 17.5 beam, 7.9 depth and was built in Baltimore, in 1862. She was well-known on the Potomac and often came to this port.

Another Manufactory.

During the past few days parties have been in this city making arrangements for the removal of a metal tiling manufactory from Boston to Alexandria. The gentlemen interested in the enterprise have leased the building adjoining on the north that occupied by the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, on the Strand, and they have an option on the house next door. Should the plans be perfected, the plant will be removed to this city and a furnace constructed at the dock opposite the buildings described. It will require a furnace generating heat to 800° for the purpose of manufactoring metal tiles. It is said that several prominent men of the country are interested in the manufactory, and from 50 to 100 persons will be employed in it by next summer.

Improvements at the New Depot.

Mr. J. B. Hughes, of this city, is engaged in making connections for supplying the new union depot with Cameron water, the mains having already been extended from West End road. The vitrified bricks for the paving on the west and south have arrived and the concrete work is now in progress. The building is to be lighted with electricity, which is to be generated at the new union yards north of Alexandria. A power house is now being constructed and the dynamos and boilers have arrived. The new yard will be brilliantly illuminated and the current will be brought to the depot where the new structure as well as the depot grounds will be lighted as far south as West End road.

Circuit Court for the City.

[Judge C. E. Nicol presiding.]

J. L. Loose vs. Southern Railway Company, suit for damages; order entered setting aside order of November 9, and leave granted plaintiff to amend his declaration.

W. B. Newman vs. H. L. Strider, a suit for $286 claimed to be due for rent on a house in Washington; jury and verdict for plaintiff.

J. A. Cogan vs. Wm. Kilburn; case in progress.

The Market.

Those who occupy stalls in the City Market have started a movement to build up the market trade, in which undertaking they should be encouraged. They will endeavor to keep the best and freshest meats, vegetables, fruits, butter, eggs, &c., and to sell them at the most reasonable terms. Marketing will be delivered to purchasers free of charge.

Improvements at Station House.

The alterations and improvements at police headquarters have been virtually completed. The main office is now on the first floor, and at the front door; hence persons having business at the station house are no longer compelled to ascend a long staircase, as heretofore.

Good Templars.

A meeting will be held in Pythian Hall tonight for the purpose of organizing a lodge of Good Templars in this city. Delegations will be present from Washington and Falls Church. Several years ago there were two flourishing lodges of Good Templars in Alexandria.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning.

Christopher Mason and Howard Banks, two colored boys, had been arrested by Officers Beach, Lyles and Garvey charged with forgery. It is alleged that the accused obtained about twenty-five dollars' worth of goods from the stores of M. Parker and Weil Bros. on orders purporting to have been written by Miss Bashford, of Alexandria county. The prisoners had their cases continued in the absence of material witnesses.

J. W. Kincheloe was the next prisoner who faced the bar. He had been picked up by Officers Bell and Garvey as a suspicious character. Kincheloe had been loitering about saloons in the northwestern section of the city and had invaded a residence and frightened some of the inmates. The prisoner said he was a native of Rectortown, and it appeared that this was not the first time he had been arrested in Alexandria. He was dismissed with the understanding that he would leave the city within an hour.

John Smith, a young colored man, arrested by Officer Garvey for carrying concealed weapons, was the next person who was made to face the justice. It was alleged that the prisoner had been guilty of disorderly conduct in the rear of a saloon in the northeastern section of the city, and when the officers took him in charge he dropped an antiquated Colt's revolver, as well as some cartridges. Smith denied the charge against him. He was fined $20 and having no money with which to pay the assessment he will serve a term on the gang.

Personal.

Prof. and Mrs. Angus Crawford, at their home on Seminary Hill, this evening, gave a beautiful reception in honor of their daughter, Miss Alice Crawford, who this fall makes her debut.

Mrs. Phoebe Heisley left last night for Charleston, W. Va., to visit her daughter, Mrs. Virginia Hager. She will remain there the rest of the winter.

Col. J. S Mosby was in the city today.

Mr. Percy Cliff and Miss Florence Henderson, both of this city, were married last Wednesday night by Rev. Mr. Jeffers.

The marriage of Miss Mary Maxwell Syme, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad H. Syme, formerly of this city, to Rev. Henry Waddell Pratt, will take place on Wednesday the 29th, in Washington. The ceremony, which will take place in the Second Southern Presbyterian Church, of which the bridegroom is the pastor, will be performed by Rev. Dr. F. J. Brooke, of this city, assisted by Rev. Dr. S. L. Lewis, of Washington.

Bishop Lloyd.

As stated in the Gazette of that day Rev. Arthur S. Lloyd was yesterday morning in Lynchburg elected by the council of the Episcopal diocese of Southern Virginia bishop coadjutor for that diocese. The election was on the fourth ballot. He received 36 of the 62 clerical votes and 40 of the 66 lay votes.

Bishop Randolph appointed the following committee to notify Dr. Lloyd of his election: Rev. J. C. Bryan, Petersburg; Rev. J. M. Owens, Lynchburg; Rev. W. H. Milton, Roanoke, and Messrs. G. W. Smith, W. B. Martin and Col. R. E. Withers.

The Bishop-coadjutor elect is 48 years of age. His wife is a daughter of Col. W. W. Blackford, of Norfolk, and they have five children. He was ordained in 1880, his first charge being at Farmville, where he remained five years. From there he went to Norfolk and for 14 years was rector of St. Luke's. Six years ago he removed to New York to accept the position of general secretary of the Board of Missions of the Episcopal Church.

The council has required that the Bishop-coadjutor shall live no farther east in the State than Lynchburg, and it is expected that either Lynchburg, Roanoke or Wytheville will be selected for his residence.

Investigation at V. M. I.

A meeting of the members of the board of visitors of the Virginia Military Institute is now being held at the institute for the purpose of investigating the character of the food furnished the cadets, complaints having been made that the fare was lacking in quality and preparation.

The matters before the board are the breach of discipline on the part of the whole corps of cadets by refusing to go to supper, and going up town for something to eat instead, and the threat by the third class to withdraw unless a promise of better fare was given them. The board held a session yesterday, decided upon the procedure and adjourned until today, when the real business will be taken up. Following are the meals for one day, which is an average bill of fare:

The Election

The official returns from the counties in Tuesday's election confirm the former reports both as to the majorities of the State ticket and the representation in the Legislature.

Complete returns show a considerable republican loss in Tazewell county, and that Buchanan went democratic by a small vote. Washington county elects both democratic candidates to the House.

The King George democrats are very much elated over the result. Nobody was surprised by the triumph of the State ticket, but the defeat of Payne (republican), by Moncure (democrat), for the House, in King George and Stafford, was the most surprising feature of all.

No Poison in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

From Napier, New Zealand, Herald: Two years ago the Pharmacy Board of New South Wales, Australia, had an analysis made of all the cough medicines that they declared were entirely free from all poisons. This exception was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, made by the Chamberlain Medicine Company, Des Moines, Iowa, U. S. A. The absence of all narcotics makes this remedy the safest and best that can be had; and it is with a feeling of security that any mother can give it to her little ones. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is especially recommended by its makers for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. When taken in time it prevents pneumonia. This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

The Methodists.

The second day's work of the Virginia Methodist Conference, in session in Danville, was begun yesterday. Several elders passed the character examination and made reports from their churches. Dr. J. P. Garland's request for superannuation was granted. He has been in the active ministry for 47 years and is in feeble health. A similar request from Dr. W. E. Judkins was granted.

A paper adopted by the Farmville District Conference on "Sabbath Observance" was read by Dr. James Cannon, jr.

A number of the class of the third year passed their character examinations. Others were continued on trial. Several deacons passed the examination and were elected elders.

A letter from Bishop A. Coke Smith was read, reporting an improvement in his health, but not such as to permit his presence at the conference. After a formal expression of gratification at the Bishop's improvement the conference adjourned until this morning.

Quarantine Conference.

The Southern Conference on Quarantine and Immigration met in Chattanooga yesterday. Governor Cox in calling the convention to order explained the object of the gathering to be to prevent the coming to the South of the pauper and criminal classes of Europe, which now are flocking to the West and northwest; also to provide for uniform legislation by the southern States, which should have the approval of Congress, and thus have the force of constitutional law, so that a citizen going to any part of the South in times of epidemic should know exactly what conditions he would meet.

Regarding the subject of immigration, Governor Vardaman, of Mississippi, said:

"No country ever needed homemaking, homeowning white citizens more than the southern States today. Negro labor, which hitherto has performed the work in our cotton and cane fields, is becoming absolutely worthless. Its place must be filled. I would rather wait, let our fields lie idle for a time, than to fill up our land with men who are not capable of understanding our institutions, who cannot be assimilated and absorbed into our citizenship."

After the appointment of committees on credentials and permanent organization a recess was taken.

Saved by Dynamite.

Sometimes, a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes, a cough hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it Z. T. Gray, of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and La Grippe. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store, price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

The Murder of Mrs. Todd.

The story that the body of Mrs. Margaret Todd, of New York, was placed on the tracks of the Reading Railroad in Philadelphia on the night of October 27 by two men was corroborated yesterday by a statement made by Richard B. Coutant, formerly of Terrytown, N. Y., but recently employed as a chemist in Philadelphia. Mr. Coutant said that the night Mrs. Todd was killed he had been walking in Fairmount Park and sat down on a park bench near the railroad track to smoke a cigar. He heard a carriage driven up behind the trees on the other side of the track and saw two men carry some heavy object down the embankment and behind a freight train. His suspicions were not aroused then, but he now believes the object was the body of Mrs. Todd. Philadelphia detectives who were apprised of the story told in New York by Richard B. Coutant said that they did not place much reliance in his story.

Alimony from Man She Remarries.

A decision rendered in Richmond in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals concerns the remarriage of two prominent Virginia people. Mrs. Ralph Savage recently secured a divorce from her husband, and was allowed to resume her maiden name and was awarded alimony of $400 a year. The differences which caused the divorce finally were forgotten and the pair were remarried. The husband then became bankrupt and his creditors endeavored to secure the property held by his wife for the payment of alimony. The agreement of the husband was, however, for the payment of $400 a year for life, and the remarried wife's claim was secured by the trust deed. The court held that her claim was good and the effort of the contesting creditors came to nothing.

A LAXATIVE Cough Syrup
THE NEW IDEA

THE ORIGINAL

"A Cold or a Cough nearly always produces constipation—the water all runs to the eyes, nose and throat instead of passing out of the system through the liver and kidneys. For the want of moisture the bowels become dry and hard."

KENNEDY'S LAXATIVE HONEY AND TAR

Cures Coughs by cleansing and strengthening the mucous membranes of the throat, chest, lungs and bronchial tubes.
For Croup, Whooping Cough, La Grippe, Influenza, Bronchitis, and all Coughs, Colds, Lung and Bronchial affections no remedy is equal to Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. Children like it.

Modern Athens

The rest of our journey was along the Saronic Gulf of Athens. Here we found a beautiful modern city of 160,000 people, laid off under the Bavarian King Otto, with special reference to the Acropolis and the places of interest in ancient Athens. These have been left apart, with free space about them, so that it is a pleasure to study them in this large, unimproved prospective. It is so different from Rome, where the Forum, the Palatine Hill, the Coliseum are all choked in and half buried by the mediæval and modern city.

The first place we visited here was the stadium, or open air amphitheatre, which is being completed in exact reproduction of the ancient work. It is in marble from Pentelicus, whose white cliffside can be clearly seen from Athens. A wealthy Greek merchant of Alexandria gave the money to rebuild it, and left some $6,000,000 more to the Greek government for general purposes of education, art, etc. We saw a polytechnic school which he built The Greeks who have left their own land are very patriotic and send much money home to promote the condition of Greece. Next year the international athletic contests are to take place again in Athens, and now in the completed beautiful marble stadium. Students and others here are already preparing for them.

We saw the beautiful temple of Theseus, one of the few Greek temples left intact, and after which the Madeleine in Paris was built. We saw the temple of Olymphian Jove, begun by the Greeks, but completed by the Emperor Hadrian about A. D. 150. Hadrian had almost a mania for building temples, and some of them he left unnamed. A few of these later became Christian churches, and the Christians regarded Hadrian as a kind of heathen preparer of the way of Christ. But I cannot mention all we saw—the temple of the winds, the bema from which Demosthenes spoke, a view of Salamis, where the Athenian fleet defeated the Persians, while Xerxes looked on from a rocky eminence within our horizon, the theatre of Bacchus, cut out of the rock, the cave and spring of Æsculapius, and the museum full of things of interest. Most "Advance" readers know what is on the Acropolis—the little temple of Victory, now restored by German scholars, built to commemorate the defeat of Persia; the Propylæum, or beautiful marble gateway to the temple area, the temple of Erechtheus, and above all the Parthenon, built in honor of the virgin Athena, or Minerva, the guardian deity of the city. The Parthenon everywhere speaks of life, motion, energy. It is said there is not a straight line in this temple, nor anything exactly at right angles.—(Professor H. M. Scott, in The Chicago Advance.

Fish Hook in His Throat.

Although he has a fish hook stuck into his esophagus and a piece of strong fishline in his stomach, Henry L. Readner, of Ithaca, N. Y., is not afraid of immediate serious results. According to his own statement, Readner swallowed the fishing tackle while eating his supper in semi-darkness. He thinks it fell from a mantel shelf upon his plate, where he mashed some potatoes. After the first mouthful he felt something like a string in his mouth, and he pulled out the fishline until he felt a sharp pain in the throat. Being unable to get the hook out he attempted to swallow string and all. The line went down easily, but the hook is still in his throat. If it gives him serious trouble, his physicians say, the hook will either have to be dissolved or removed by an operation.

Terrific Race With Death.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death, "as a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect, that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 50c.

When you want a pleasant physic try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and produce no griping or no unpleasant effect. Sold by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Nature Needs But Little.

Nature needs only a Little Early Riser now and then to keep the bowels clean, the liver active, and the system free from bile, headaches, constipation, etc The famous little pills "Early Risers" are pleasant in effect and perfect in action. They never gripe or sicken, but tone and strengthen the liver and kidneys. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

But Few Are Free.

But few people are entirely free from indigestion at this season of the year. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is not only the best remedy to use because it digests what you eat but because it also enables the digestive apparatus to assimilate and transform all foods into tissue-building blood. Kodol relieves sour stomach, heart burn, belching, and all forms of indigestion. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.
